Nancy Grace

Alumni Speaker

An outspoken, tireless advocate for victims' rights and one of television's most respected legal analysts, Nancy Grace currently hosts Crime Stories with Nancy Grace (airing on Fox Nation, SIRIUS XM's Triumph Channel 132 and downloadable as a podcast that boasts 12M+ downloads monthly) as well as headlines the hit syndicated television series Bloodline Detectives (now in Season 3). She is the founder and publisher of CrimeOnline.com, a crime-fighting digital platform that investigates breaking crime news, spreads awareness of missing people and shines a light on cold cases. Previously, she was the powerful force behind CNN Headline News' (HLN) top-rated Nancy Grace, Oxygen's hit show Injustice with Nancy Grace and A&E's limited series Grace vs. Abrams.

A former prosecutor with an unparalleled record of success, she has guested on The Oprah Winfrey Show, The View, Good Morning America, The Today Show, Dr. Oz, Dr. Phil and Larry King Live, among others, dispensing her firebrand take on the modern justice system. In addition, she was a highlight and fan favorite of Dancing with the Stars: Season 13, finishing in the competition's coveted Top 5. All of her earnings from the show went to support the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. In 2011, Grace was named one of the most impactful and powerful women in entertainment by both leading industry trade magazines, Variety and The Hollywood Reporter.

Grace's first non-fiction book, "Objection!", was published in 2005 and became an instant New York Times bestseller. Her two subsequent novels, "The Eleventh Victim" (2009) and "Death on the D-List" (2010), were also New York Times bestsellers. Her latest work of fiction, "Murder in the Courthouse," was released in time to coincide with the first in a long-running series of Hallmark movies, Hailey Dean Mysteries, based on her popular characters. Her newest book, "Don't Be A Victim," hit shelves in September 2020 and has been praised by Publishers Weekly as "a sensible guide on how to avoid becoming a crime victim." Grace has also executive produced many television films, including "The Eleventh Victim" (Lifetime), "The Good Father" (Lifetime), "Our Christmas Love Song" (Hallmark) and "Christmas Bedtime Stories."

She is the recipient of several American Women in Radio & Television "Gracie Awards" for her Nancy Grace Investigates primetime report on Court TV and has been awarded the Individual Achievement/Best Program Host honor. Grace has also been widely recognized by many notable organizations (including the Carole Sund/Carrington Foundation, Crime Victims United of California and The Retreat) for her advocacy work on behalf of victims' rights.

Grace's life changed forever in 1979 when her fiancé, Keith Griffin, was shot and killed. In the aftermath of that crime, Nancy abandoned plans to become an English professor and turned her focus to criminal justice. She became a Law Review graduate of Mercer Law School and received her degree in constitutional and criminal law from New York University. Additionally, she donated her time to help staff the hotline at an Atlanta battered women's center for over 10 years.

Nancy Grace initially came to television from the Atlanta Fulton County District Attorney's Office, where she served more than a decade as a special prosecutor of felony cases involving murder, rape, child molestation and arson. Known for her authentic sensibility and for not holding back her opinion on high-profile cases, she was tapped to co-host Court TV's Cochran and Grace and, later, the live daily trial coverage program, Closing Arguments. She also presided over the daytime hit Swift Justice with Nancy Grace, for which she received an Emmy Award nomination. In 2007 Grace married investment banker David Linch. In a recent interview she said, "After I lost my fiancé, it seemed like it would be better to always be alone than to risk being hurt again. I thought God had closed that door and given me my career instead. But then someone came into my life, and I realized: this is worth the risk."

Another life milestone followed – the birth of twins John David and Lucy. "These babies are my miracles," she says.

Now, everything important in Grace's life – including her unwavering crusade for true justice – comes back to family. Since her marriage and the birth of her children, Nancy says, "I feel even more passionate about fighting for victims."

Nancy Grace, her husband and her twins reside in Atlanta and New York City with their rescue pets: a dog, cat, and two guinea pigs.

BIOGRAPHIES

Jherica Kirkland

Bell Ringer

Jherica Kirkland of Rome, Ga., is receiving a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. During her time on campus, she has assisted with the recruitment and retention of other students – serving as a Gamecock Guide and as president of the JSU Ambassadors, a student worker for JSU Admissions and a mentor for STU 101. She has also served as a member of the Marching Southerners Colorguard and Lambda Sigma honor society, as well as being elected to Homecoming Court. She has been accepted into the nursing residency program at Atrium Health Floyd.

Kaelyn Harris

Student Vocalist

Kaelyn Harris of Gadsden, Ala., is a junior majoring in vocal music education. She is a scholarship recipient through her involvement in The Marching Southerners, A Cappella Choir and Chamber Singers. As a member of the Jacksonville Opera Theatre, she has performed lead soprano roles in productions of “Die Fledermaus,” “Cosi fan Tutte,” “The Gondoliers” and “A Hand of Bridge.” She recently received the Penelope Cunningham Scholarship and Walter Sechriest Award from the Birmingham Music Club Guild. She also won first place among junior women in a competition hosted by the Alabama chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing.

Carson Crowe

Bell Ringer

Carson Crowe of Tuscaloosa, Ala., is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Marketing. A right fielder for the Gamecock baseball team, he was named to the All-Freshman and All-Tournament teams and was a member of the OVC conference championship team in 2019. In 2022, he led the team in both RBIs and home runs. To culminate his time at JSU, he was selected as team captain for the 2023 season. After graduation, he will join Boostr Digital Displays, a digital products company that primarily serves athletic programs across the country.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

In 1895, the INTERCOLLEGIATE CODE of the academic costume followed by most institutions was adopted. The Bachelor's gown is distinguished by its pointed sleeves. The Master's gown has closed sleeves with an opening at the level of the wrist to free the hands. The Doctoral gown has bell shaped sleeves and is faced with three velvet chevrons which may be either black or the color of the department that conferred the degree.

The binding of the hoods shows departmental colors as follows:

Arts, Letters, and Humanities	White
Business Administration	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Home Economics	Maroon
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Philosophy	Blue
Physical Education	Dark Green
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
PhD degree in any discipline	Dark Blue

The hood is lined with the color or colors of the conferring university. The colors of Jacksonville State University are red and white chevron.

At Jacksonville State University, all male graduates wear a black mortarboard cap. The tassel may be black or a departmental color. Female graduates may wear a soft, square-topped, black cap. Doctors may wear a black tassel or a tassel made from gold metallic threads. Faculty members wear the regalia of the university from which they received the terminal degree. The President wears the regalia of the university for ceremonial occasions. The gown is adorned with a fourth velvet chevron on the sleeve.
